SPEECH—THE EMANCIPATION EDICT

ENDORSED LETTERS OF REGRET, &c.

The twenty-first anniversary of the slaves in the District of Columbia, was duly celebrated last Monday, notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather thousands of people could be seen on the streets. There were all sizes and ages, the decreed mother, father, the joyful daughters and the little pratt-ling boys all enjoyed the festivities of the day; never before in the history of the colored race, was there ever such a demonstration in the District of Columbia. The visiting militia and Smith's commandary from Baltimore, presented a fine appearance. The Baltimore commandary showed more appreciation for the emancipation of the slaves in the District of Columbia, than our own commandaries in this city; notwithstanding the opposition, Col.

P. H. Carson, J. W. Freeman and others interested in the success of the celebration met with, the next turn out to be one that will go down to posterity and one that will ever be remembered and honored in this age. The success of the celebration was due to a great extent to the efforts of the Chief Marshal, Messrs. J. W. Freeman, Geo.

W. Stewart and Milton M. Holland.

The Chief Marshal, the Chief of Staff and aids, were tastefully dressed in full black. No one resembled the black

Sam Domingus Chief, more than Col. P.

H. Carson, who headed the great procession Monday. At one o'clock the procession started, headed a squad of eighteen mounted policemen in the following order:

Chief Marshal—Perry H. Carson.

Aids—Stewart Campbell, Addison

Day, J. C. Smith, Ottawa Holmes, F.

Brown, William J. Tyler, B. G. Mc-
